Fire Truck Crashes On Way To Blaze

A South Branch Township fire truck with two firefighters ran off Connor's Flats Road on a curve and struck a tree while responding to a call at 2:40 a.m. Sunday.

The firefighters were transported by Crawford County Ambulance to Mercy Hospital and treated for minor injuries.

The Lovells Township Fire Department also responded to the same fire call for a house near the AuSable and was able to put out the fire with minimal damage to the structure.

House Trailer Destroyed By Morning Fire

A fire early Friday morning, Sept. 14, ruined a house trailer owned by Alden and Tina Lovely on M-72 East ten miles east of Grayling.

No one was at the trailer when the fire was reported about 2:50 a.m. Sheriff deputies found the trailer engulfed in flames and the Grayling Fire Dept. responded to the call and suppressed the blaze.

The cause of the fire is unknown and still under investigation.

Workshop Focuses On Marketing Forest Products

The Michigan Forest Products Assistance Center at Michigan Technological University is sponsoring a one-day marketing workshop in Grayling aimed at helping sawmills and secondary wood product manufacturers market their products more effectively.

The workshop, to be held Wednesday, September 26, at the Grayling Holiday Inn, will be conducted by Scott Matre, vice president of Mater Engineering of Corvallis, Oregon. Mater has a background in engineering, management, and forest products marketing that equips him to provide practical assistance to wood product production facilities. The registration fee of $75 includes lunch and refreshments. For more information on the workshop, contact John Diebel at Michigan Tech's Institute of Wood Research by calling (906) 487-2464.

SOLDIER SUPPORT--Employees at the Crawford County Courthouse gathered Monday in front of a red, white, and blue ribbon tree to show support for our servicemen and women in the Middle East. Most of the employees also wore red, white, and blue. County officials have requested photos of local servicemen overseas be brought in to the courthouse for display.

Vinnie Johnson To Light Up Nets At GHS Court

The Grayling Junior Pro Basketball League is sponsoring a Detroit Pistons Basketball Clinic on Sunday, September 23, at the Grayling High School Gym, starting at 2 p.m.

The Detroit Pistons' Vinnie "Microwave" Johnson, Assistant Pistons' Coach Brendon Malone, and Detroit Pistons' announcer George Blaha will be the guests of honor conducting this clinic.

Free autographs and a Pistons memorabilia raffle will be held after the clinic. A concession stand will be available for snacks.

Cost of attending this clinic is $5 per person, or $15 for a family of four or more. Tickets are available at the R & H Sports Center, or the Grayling 7 Eleven Store. Tickets will also be available at the door.

After the clinic, there will be a reception at the Grayling Holiday Inn. This will be a chance to speak to Vinnie, Brendon, and George in person. The afterglow will be from 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. The price is $5 per person to help cover the cost of snacks. There will be a cash bar.

The clinic is open to everyone in all age groups.

VINNIE JOHNSON

Johnson is one of the premier players in the NBA at coming off the bench and igniting a team. He earned the nickname "Microwave" from Boston Celtic guard Danny Ainge for the way Johnson heats up in a hurry.

Johnson is a line-drive shooter who seems to make more shots with defenders hanging on him. He also is one of the NBA's strongest guards with a solid build.

Johnson was a member of the world champion Seattle Sonics and also has won two championship rings as a Piston.

Last season he averaged 12.2 points per game in the Finals. For the second straight regular season, he came out of his scoring slump at the end of the season, finishing at 9.8 points per game. He eclipsed the 10,000 career point total in 1989-90. With the injury to Dumars, he started 11 straight games and during that time he averaged 15.8 points, 6.4 rebounds and 4.5 assists. For the third straight season, he played in every game.

Vinnie ranks on many of the Pistons' top ten categories of all-time career leaders including points, steals, and games played. He had probably his best season as a pro during the 1986-87 season when he was runner-up in the balloting for the NBA's Sixth Man Award. He also owns the Pistons' record for consecutive points scored when he burned Utah for 19 straight points on March 1, 1989. Vinnie had one strong season in Seattle in 1980-81 when he started 63 games as Gus Williams sat the year out and was the NBA's top offensive rebounder in that season, averaging 2.4 offensive boards per game.

Johnson, 6'2" and 200 pounds, played college basketball at Baylor and was drafted by Seattle in 1979 as the 7th pick overall in the first round.

The Brooklyn, New York, native was traded to Detroit in 1981 for Greg Kelser.

GEORGE BLAHA

For the 15th consecutive year, George Blaha will broadcast all the action of the World Champion Detroit Pistons on both radio and television.

Blaha, son of retired Grayling doctor Vernon Blaha, does the Piston play-by-play on Channel 50 television in addition to radio broadcasts.

Detroit born, Marshalltown (IA) and Grayling (MI) raised, Blaha attended Campion Jesuit High School in Prairie du Chien, WI. From there he went on to the University of Notre

Local Guard Unit 'On Hold'

Members of Camp Grayling's 1438th Engineer Unit continue to function in their civilian lives as they wait for the call to active duty.

The 1438th was one of four Michigan National Guard units notified by Gov. James Blanchard on August 24 to be ready for active duty status. According to Camp Grayling's Public Affairs Officer MAJ Jerold Foehl, the unit is still awaiting further orders from the Defense Dept.

"They are back at their civilian jobs probably wondering if the urgency of their going has diminished," said MAJ Foehl. "Wondering whether they will be going anywhere at all."

MAJ Foehl said a fifth Michigan Army National Guard unit, the 460th Supply and Service Company, based in Midland, was alerted last week to standby for their active duty orders. A combat service support unit, the 460th would probably include personnel able to operate bakeries, laundries, water purification systems, set up shower facilities, fill bulk grocery needs from a commissary (ration breakdown), and handle bulk petroleum.

The 460th is commanded by CPT James Kazmierski.

Meanwhile, the number of military personnel from Crawford County sent to the Middle East continues to increase.

Petty Officer 1st Class Dan Lucksted left for Saudi Arabia on September 3. Lucksted is working as a hospital corpsman in support of the U.S. Marines. He has been in the Navy for eight years and is the son of Bill and Flo Lucksted.

Lucksted's address is Dan Lucksted 379-78-3224, A-Med BSSG-1 1st MEB, FPO San Francisco, CA 96608-5700.

James Hall is also part of Operation Desert Shield. His address is Spec. James Hall 367-80-7104, Operation Desert Shield, K-Company 159th Aviation Reg., APO New York, NY 09657. Hall is the son of Linda Milliman.

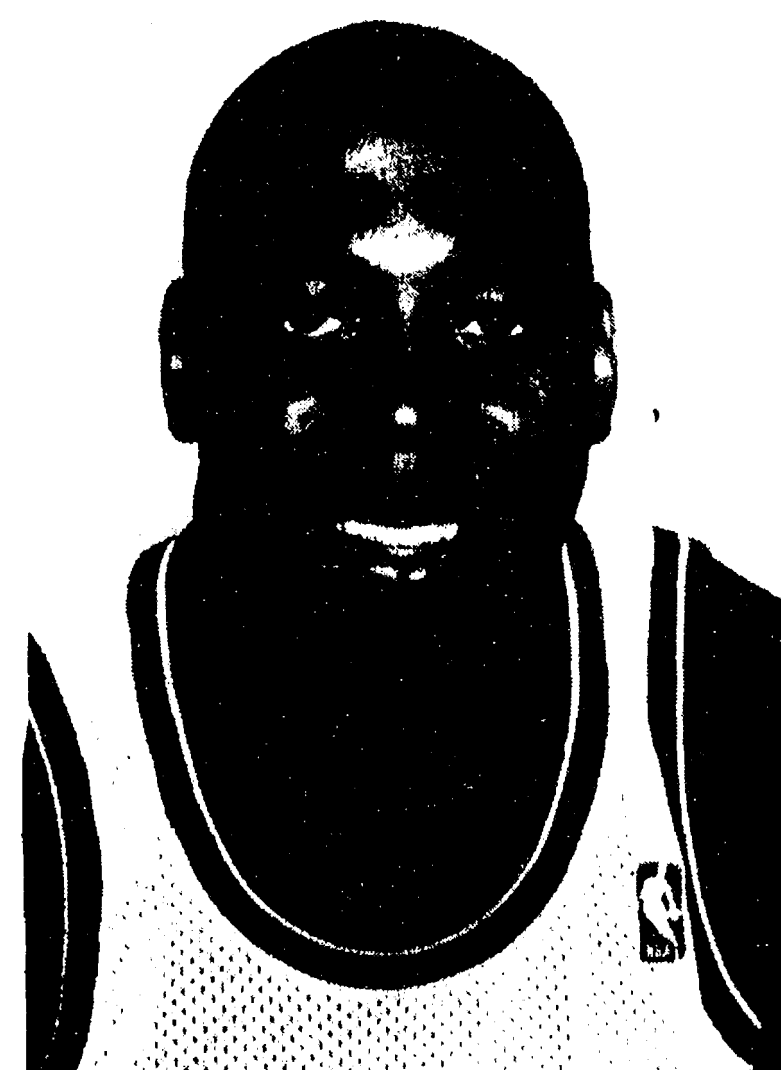

SGT Jeff Geiss, son of Don and Maxine Geiss, is a ten year veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps. He has served in Korea, Okinawa, and Hawaii in addition to bases in the United States and is now in Saudi Arabia.

Geiss' address is SGT Geiss JJ, 382725787, BSSJ/1 MT CO., FPO San Francisco, CA 96608.

Additional suggestions from a reader for persons putting together "care packages" bound for Saudi Arabia include: pre-stamped envelopes to avoid the problems of postage stamps sticking together, pre-sweetened Kool-aid, small pencils, pencil sharpeners, and erasers (pens do not work well because of the pressure of flying and the humidity), and newspapers containing cartoon strips and local sports.

Because of the problem with the humidity causing postage stamps to stick together, military personnel serving in Saudi Arabia have recently been granted free postage.

If you know of anyone serving in the Persian Gulf area, please call the Avalanche with their names and addresses. In addition to publishing the addresses so that friends and neighbors can keep in touch, the Avalanche will be sending complimentary issues to military personnel from Crawford County not already receiving the paper.

Pediatric Specialty Clinic Offered At Grayling Mercy Hospital

Outpatient pediatric services will be offered at Mercy Hospital/Grayling beginning Wednesday, Sept. 26. The Pediatric Specialty Clinic will be offered every other Wednesday in Mercy Hospital's Specialty Clinic area.

Douglas Slater, M.D., board-eligible pediatrician, is the physician who will be seeing patients at the clinic. Patients are accepted on a referral basis only. Referrals must come from a physician, but if no physician is available to the patient, an initial evaluation through the MercyCare Clinic during the hours of 8 a.m. to noon, Monday through Friday, can determine if the child needs the care of a pediatrician. MercyCare Clinic is located in the emergency department at Mercy Hospital.

"The clinic's mission is to provide specialist outpatient care to a select group of children with serious medical problems," said Dr. Slater.

The clinic does not provide well baby care, immunizations, or routine check ups for common problems. Dr. Slater is not available for deliveries or in-hospital pediatric care. If a child needs routine medical care and does not have a family physician, Dr. Slater is available by appointment at the Montmorency Medical Clinic in Lewiston at 786-4877.

For more information contact the Central Scheduling Department at Mercy Hospital at 348-5461, ext. 103, or consult your local doctor.

County Schedules Millage Hearing

The Crawford County Board of Commissioners will hold a public hearing at 11 a.m. on Thursday, September 27, at the Courthouse, to discuss the rate of operating tax millage the county should levy in 1990.

"According to Michigan tax laws, because State Equalization Values (SEV) in Crawford County went up due to new construction and land value increases," explained County Treasurer Joseph Wakeley, "in order for the county to spread the same millage rates for 1990 as the county spread in 1989 we have to say we are increasing taxes," he said.

Wakeley said if the county did not hold a public hearing the county would have to roll the millage back 43823, nearly 1/2 of a mill, which would cut into the revenue of such county programs as the Hanson Hills Recreation Area, Commission on Aging, and Crawford County Public Transit, as well as the county operating millage.

One half mill equals approximately $100,000 in county revenue.

According to Wakeley, options to be discussed at the public hearing includes spreading the whole millage, reducing the millage, and anything in between.

Along with the increases in SEV, state revenues from liquor and cigarette tax collections will also be discussed.

"By law those revenues are considered local tax revenues," said Wakeley, "even though half of the liquor tax reimbursement must go to substance abuse education and 16/17 of the cigarette tax money must go to the health department and jail improvements," he said. "The remainder, half of the liquor tax and 1/17 of the cigarette tax revenues, can go into the county's general fund."

NBD Donates $2000 to KCC

The Kirtland Community College Foundation recently received a $2,000 donation from the NBD Corporation of Cadillac and Roscommon. The donation is to be used for capital equipment purchases in a program needing additional support.

Walter Nowak, Foundation Executive Director, stated "With today's rapid technological changes and shrinking budget, the college finds it difficult to keep pace with the new equipment needed in many of its vocational technical programs. Support in the form of donations from organizations and individuals allows for purchase of the latest equipment that may not have been obtained otherwise."

The Kirtland Community College Foundation was established in 1972 for the purposes of soliciting funds from the private sector to augment and extend the financial base of the college. As a non-profit corporation, the Foundation can solicit and receive tax deductible gifts and use them for the benefit of the college and its community. The Director would be happy to meet with any Foundation, organization, or individual in the college district looking for a worthwhile project to fund. For further information on the Foundation and what its purpose is, call 517-275-5121, extension 228.

Opinions

Let's Talk About It By Joe Murphy

Well, I guess the so-called summer is over, can't remember just what day summer was this year. Now hopefully we will have a long and beautiful Indian summer to enjoy before old man winter settles in. Fall is kind of a difficult time to cope with for an old country boy such as myself. It seems to set off reactions to these autumn days I don't even understand myself. Those guns in the rack that I paid no attention to all summer now get checked over and cleaned. I have to take them out to the range and sight them in. My bow also got its share of attention and had to be shot a few times. The old hunting instinct is still alive and well and the call of the woods is strong. I tell myself every year will be my last, but as the days grow shorter and the air becomes chilly, I again find myself getting ready to play the part of the provider, just as man has from cave man days. The same instincts that drove ancient man to sharpen his spear and take the track of a hairy mammoth to provide food for his family during the cold winter months, now cause me to prepare my gear for the hunt. No, I do not have to hunt to survive, but the same urges that drove ancient man still drive me. Perhaps man has not yet become free of those instincts that were needed to survive on earth. I hope I'll never have to, but it is good to know that even in this area if things got bad enough, that with a good 33-rifle and box of ammo I would not starve. As the song says, "A Country Boy Can Survive."

It's strange that things that are common place now would have, in my boyhood days, caused alarm and wonder. I was just outside and the vapor trail of a high flying plane was trailing across the sky. If it had been fifty years ago, folks would have all been standing in awe and fear at such a sight. The first time I heard a sonic boom I thought that the plane had exploded in mid-air. Do you think you could ever convince someone from a hundred years ago that man has walked on the moon. That the little box is showing things as they happen on the other side of the world. That you could leave here now and arrive in California before you left, according to the clock. That you can pick up your phone and by dialing a few numbers, reach one particular phone almost anywhere in the world. The world of today is wonderful in what we do that would have been thought of as poppycock just a few short years ago. Think of all the changes that have taken place in the lifetime of those people who have reached the century mark, mind boggling.

Readers Wonder About Keeping Doctors In Area

To the Editor:

We were pleased to see a letter written about the doctor dilemma of Crawford County. We, like E. Jean Elsey, are also worried and scared because our physician is one that is leaving.

Maybe the persons you speak of in your letter, who are apathetic on this subject, are thankfully enjoying good health, or can't foresee that at any time, their lives may depend on good immediate medical attention, or even possibly need continuous medical care the rest of their lives.

We imagine it is too late to change the minds of the doctors who are currently leaving our area. Hopefully, their leaving wasn't caused by something that the community could have helped remedy so as to make it a more acceptable working environment for these physicians.

But, now we need answers from the most obvious informational vehicle, Grayling Mercy Hospital, to these questions:

1. Do they have an immediate plan to meet our medical needs in procuring doctors to fill the void caused by the loss of the doctors who are leaving?

2. Are they planning to keep the doors open?

3. Are they doing everything possible to encourage physicians to stay in this area?

Community Efforts Appreciated With Moving Wall Memorial

Our sincerest thanks to everyone in the community for their efforts in bringing the "Vietnam Moving Wall Memorial" to Grayling.

A special thanks to Pastor Lochner, Don Ashcraft, and Donald "Digger" O'Dell, the Color Guards from Grayling and Petoskey, the Wall hosts, and the beautiful voices of the Mich. Memorial United Methodist choir and their director, Howard Taylor. Their contributions to the Candlelight Remembrance Ceremony were greatly appreciated.

We thank you for your kind words, calls, and visits throughout the entire week. To Kathy Ashton for the window tribute, "thank you" we were honored to have been asked, to Irene Pettyjohn, "thank you" for such a well written, informative article that stirred many memories. Above all, thanks to Donna O'Grady and the Grayling Area Minuteman Foundation from the bottom of our hearts. It was truly an experience we will always remember.

Golfers Raise $2,500 For MDA

On behalf of Fabiano Brothers, Inc., I would like to personally thank all the volunteers who worked very hard to make the Ninth Annual Budweiser/MDA Golf Tournament at the Grayling Country Club the success it was. Many people put forth a great deal of time and energy, not only on the day of the tournament, but also in the many weeks preceding the event.

We had 224 golfers participate in this charitable outing and over $2,500 was donated to Muscular Dystrophy Association. This year's event was a huge success due to the fact the people who participated did so with a true sense of giving to a charitable cause.

Again, thanks to everyone for making the Ninth Annual Budweiser/MDA Golf Tournament the great success it was.

Parents Say Bus Stop Not Close Enough

Dear Editor:

This letter is informing about our son James M. Adams, Jr. Our son just started Kindergarten Sept. 6, in Roscommon, and is five years old and 41 1/2 inches tall. Our problem relates to our son's bus stop. The bus stop our son Jimmy has to walk to is 1/2 mile out of sight from our doorstep. We have three other children of whom will also be attending Roscommon schools in the near future. Our problem is having our son walk 1/2 mile blind to his bus stop and we feel our home address should be a permanent bus stop. We are the only family on a dead end large enough for a bus to turn around. Our turn-around in front of our home at 2450 McNamara Dr. was a bus stop in 1980 for another child.

My husband and I were told by the Superintendent, Mr. Baker, he doesn't have the gas to run the 1/2 mile, he needs it for education. How can our son get an education if he is sick from walking a mile to and from his bus stop in cold, rainy weather days? Everyone on our street signed a petition to have our turn-around a permanent bus stop. We have no car in the mornings and we have other children, twins ages four, and a son age nine months. This means taking our other children to walk our son as it takes 15 minutes to walk to the bus stop and 15 minutes back. I would not be able to leave the other three children to walk our son since my husband leaves for work early. We feel our taxes are paying for a safe journey for all children.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Adams

Don't Want Apology 43 Years Later

To the Editor:

While Michigan has been trying to avoid having low level radioactive waste buried here, Consumers Power is going ahead with plans to store high level radioactive waste in dry storage concrete casks on the shores of Lake Michigan near South Haven.

This could very well mean permanent storage of this high level waste as no progress is being made on finding a national permanent storage site. No state wants it. This is also precedent setting. Nuclear plants are afraid of having to stop running if they can't find a place to dispose of their waste.

These wastes -- "spent" fuel rods -- are mortally dangerous stuff. They contain plutonium which is one of the most carcinogenic substances known -- a speck the size of a grain of pollen can cause cancer. They must be kept out of the environment for 250,000 years.

If this storage by default is allowed, we could have 55 nuclear plants that impact the Great Lakes disposing of their wastes in this manner. Who thinks the plutonium could in that case be kept out of the Lakes for 250,000 years? Many of us are dependent on the Great Lakes waters. Small amounts of radioactivity in water concentrate thousands of times up through the food chain to humans.

We cannot depend on our Federal agencies to protect us. In just three years ending in 1947, they allowed 13,000 residents in ten counties around government operated Hanford, Washington, nuclear facility to be exposed to a level of radiation 1,200 times the level the Department of Energy considers safe. Some infants and children were exposed to doses to their thyroid of 2,900 rads, more than people got from Chernobyl.

And Congress just passed legislation to give people downwind from the Nevada test site who have developed cancer $50,000 and an "apology from the government."

We don't want an apology in 43 years. We want this potential affront to our Great Lakes stopped now. Please contact the Senators Levin and Riegle, your Congressman and the Governor, and the Attorney General for immediate, effective action.

Almanack

By Richard Millman

Prague is a bustling city

(WRITER'S NOTE: This writer recently went on a 17-day trip to Eastern Europe with the Nomads Travel Club out of Detroit, visiting Poland, Czechoslovakia, East Germany, and West Germany. An earlier column talked mainly about Poland. Some further impressions follow.)

CZECHOSLOVAKIA -- the marriage of the old provinces of Bohemia and Slovenia -- is a jewel in the center of old Europe.

The utter physical destruction of World War II -- still very apparent and a dominating fact of life in both Poland and East Germany -- is not much of a factor in Czechoslovakia.

That's because Hitler and the Nazis took over Czechoslovakia in 1939 without a battle. The big powers in Europe practically ceded Czechoslovakia to the Nazis to pacify the raging Nazi war machine. "Peace in our time," predicted the British prime minister. It didn't work.

But it did mean that Prague -- the beautiful and fabled capital of Czechoslovakia -- escaped physical destruction, as did most of the rest of the nation.

The Czechs did lose freedom, among many other things. And that freedom was still lost to the Czechs as the Big Four after World War II divided Europe, and Czechoslovakia fell behind the Iron Curtain.

THE RUSSIANS squashed a few attempts at revolt during the next 40 years, until the so-called "velvet revolution" of late 1989 once more restored complete independence to Czechoslovakia.

Wenceslas Square -- the heart of Prague -- still carries monuments to the fallen heroes of past revolutions, with fresh flowers every day.

Wenceslas Square -- actually a boulevard of wide streets rather than a square -- attracts thousands of tourists these days. Prague is bustling with visitors.

One result is that usual tourist bargains -- such as crystal and garnets -- are in short supply. The tourists are buying them all up.

The country has problems, too. Pollution is a serious one. The morning we left Prague, the sickening sight of haze settling over the city marred an otherwise beautiful morning. In the mountains, pollution is killing the pines. Southern Poland, near the Czech border, is a rich coal producing area. Coal has been the main source of energy in this section of Europe for centuries. Belching black smoke from factories has gone unchecked for decades. The pollution chickens are coming home to roost.

Only recently is serious attention being paid to pollution controls. Of course, with wars and recovery and foreign domination and other such items, Poland and Czechoslovakia and other pollution blighted nations have had other things on their mind.

HOW CZECHS will respond to the new market economy is an open question. Under the state economy dictated by the Russians, the government took care of everything. The state ran everything. "We're all state employees," said our guide, Dana.

The "velvet revolution" of November and December 1989 had one peculiar problem in Czechoslovakia.

"How could we get people from their full tables to the streets," said Dana, who had taken part in the velvet revolution. The only suffering by Czechs was psychological, she said.

Things weren't so bad in Prague. Everyone had a job. Everyone had food. Most people had cars. Many even had a place in the country.

"The most important thing of the velvet revolution," said Marsela, our senior tour guide, who also was a revol -- nary, "was to get rid of fear."

She said the new Czech independence "has a big price, but it is possible."

AVERAGE WAGE in Czechoslovakia is about 3,000 Czech crowns, or about $200, per month. Most spend 50-60 percent of income for food. Rent is about one-quarter of their income. And there wasn't much to buy with what was left.

Health care was free. Education was free. Maternity leave is three years, at full pay, for the mother... nothing for the father. Vacation is four weeks for those over age 30, three weeks for under age 30. Men retire at age 60, women at 57, less one year for each child.

Can the new market economy supply all these benefits to the workers, starting with jobs for everyone? That's the biggest hurdle the Czechs will face.

Their spirit and their history indicate they will pass the test.

(NEXT: The Germans, and unification.)

Some of his sayings can be heard on the local playground: "John Long with the rock set," "VJ with the leaner off the window" or "Isiah with the high glasser and it goes!"

Blaha has been nationally and critically acclaimed for his Radio Sportstalk shows on WXYZ and CKLW. While at WXYZ he received the Best in the United States Award for his tribute to the great Joe Louis and live coverage of Louis' special funeral ceremonies in 1981. George also received the Big Mac Award from the Detroit News as the best play-by-play broadcaster in Detroit.

Notes from the Woods

By Nancy Lemmen

My sister-in-law Sally and I recently finished our second edition of the family cookbook.

The original cookbook was her idea. She wrote in her editor's notes that she "grew up in one family of great cooks and married into another one."

So I guess she figured that it just made sense to gather lots of those wonderful family recipes into one volume and pass them around, so that we all had access to each other's.

The cookbook, entitled "Family Favorites," is filled with recipes by people with Czech and German surnames, such as Bychinsky (Sally's family), Stodola (my family), Boortz, Elftman, Gaeht, Havelka, Jilek, Schweitzer, Semerad, Vanek and Wagner.

Perhaps I have a special attachment to the two books because, as a typist, I had a close relationship with all of the entries.

Through them, I was transported back to my childhood through glimpses of my grandmothers' kitchens via their recipes.

Kolaches, for example. A treat with every visit to my Czechoslovakian grandmother's farm in northern Wisconsin was the serving of Bohemian kolaches — at breakfast, dinner, supper and in between meals, too.

Kolaches were made from a sweet dough formed into balls and flattened, then topped with poppy seed, prune or apricot fillings, and baked in grandma's wood stove until perfectly and deliciously golden.

My father grew up on kolaches. All of his five sisters continue to make them regularly. Haugen, Wisconsin, where one of my aunts live, is the kolache capital — of the world, I guess. Two of my aunts have won prizes in local kolache festival competitions for their versions of the sweetened filled rolls.

The kolache recipe made both editions of the family cookbook, along with those for prune, apricot and raspberry fillings.

Also included are Grandma Stodola's recipes for Czech sauerkraut, potato dumplings, cheese dumplings in tomato sauce, fresh plum pie, molasses cake and babouka (Czech pastry).

Her recipe for blueberry muffins is included in the second edition, with the personal note: "a good variation is with fresh cranberries, but if you're making them for Mark Stodola (my brother), blueberries are the thing to use."

Also included is a doughnut recipe, although I can't imagine how this woman with a house to keep, a farm to help run, a garden to tend, chickens to feed and eight children to rear, had enough time to fool around frying doughnuts.

But I guess she found the time. Aunt Dorothy wrote at the end of the recipe that "Grandma tried other recipes, but always came back to this one that she had for many years. She made them often for her children and they (the doughnuts, not the children) never got old!"

And my sweet Grandma Wagner's "Party-Size Angel Food Cake" recipe is included in the first edition. It calls for, among other ingredients, 11 to 13 egg whites.

The note at the bottom says, "Grandma always brought this cake when she came to visit. She often drizzled lemon or orange icing over it."

And so she did — in a wonderful old metal traveling cake holder with a wooden top. My mother let me have the cake carrier after Grandma died.

When my brothers and I were young, we would open it up and run our fingers around its outside edge, to get any icing that had run off the cake, as soon as she laid it on our kitchen table.

I can see her and Grandpa pulling up to our old house in Allegan, and Grandma primly stepping out of the car in her black straight skirt — she never ever wore slacks — and wearing her black fur jacket and her tiny hat with the black veil. We always ran out to meet them, perhaps as much to be certain she had brought her angel food cake as to greet them.

If I were to be given back my childhood, I would attend more to the personhood of my ancestors. What do I know about these magnificent women beyond the fact that they were my wonderful, always very beloved grandmothers?

Hardly a thing.

Grandma Stodola, as a child, traveled in a covered wagon with her father and some siblings from Nebraska to settle in Wisconsin.

I recall Grandma Wagner telling me a story of how she was made to dress up for a piano lesson; then somehow got a whim to ride one of the pigs on her father's farm. By the time the visiting instructor arrived, she was too dirty to take her lesson.

But what are those besides remnants of mostly forgotten tales which have somehow stuck in my faulty memory? When I check my memories against those of my brothers or cousins, often they have remembered the stories differently or not at all.

I suppose that I passed through childhood with the same indifference and arrogance that most young people show to their elders. What possible stories could they have told me that would have competed with the top ten hits of the week, who was dating whom, or the length of skirts we were permitted to wear in school?

The tunes have now become golden oldies; the couples have long ago either broken up — or married — or married and broken up, and the length of skirts has gone down and up repeatedly.

And, unfortunately, my grandmas' stories have faded into pale fragments of the healthy, lively anecdotes they once must have been.

My grandmothers are gone now, too, so it is too late to ask them to tell me just once more about long ago — of a world without cars, telephones, indoor plumbing and electric ovens.

So I must settle for images dredged up through my senses rather than my memory. For those I go into their kitchens through our cookbooks.

There I see a time when refrigerator rolls were stored in ice boxes and made from scratch, rather than from boxed mixes; where cooks were instructed to "sift ingredients together nine times;" where an ingredient might be listed as "a pinch" or "the size of a walnut."

"The way to a man's heart is through his stomach," says the old adage. It is the way to a granddaughter's heart, too.

Though I leave the actual baking of kolaches to hands that can handle yeasts and doughs more adeptly than mine, and though I normally buy my angel food cakes wrapped in plastic on the grocery shelves, I will nevertheless read those recipes and think of the women who made them.

And I will wish forever that I had attended as well to their stories and their personhoods as to their cooking.

Saving Planet Earth

By Carol Wakeley

OUR WATER

Nationwide, we use 450 billion gallons of water each day. Ninety-seven percent of the Earth's supply of water is in our oceans, and two percent frozen. The one percent that is left comes from lakes and rivers or from groundwater. Groundwater is found underground in rock and soil that is porous. Most of it is pure because it has not been disturbed in any way for centuries. In terms of drinkable water, ninety percent or more is this groundwater. Being that we rely on this source for our drinking water, it should concern you to know that every state has some kind of groundwater contamination. This contamination occurs from gasoline leaking out of underground storage tanks, harmful liquids seeping out of fertilized land and industrial areas, and from dumping household chemicals down the drain or into the ground. Remember, wastewater treatment plants are not designed to handle hazardous material. Lead, bacteria and chemicals such as vinyl chloride can be in our drinking water right now from careless disposal of hazardous waste.

There is not a whole lot we can do about industries and their pollutants that find their way into ground and water, but we can do a lot in our homes. Oil seems to be very carelessly disposed of. A single quart of motor oil can pollute 250,000 gallons of drinking water. The water will smell and taste funny. If you change your oil at home, take the used oil and the containers from the fresh oil to a gas station or oil-changing outlet that recycle their oil. There might be a small fee because they have to pay someone to pick it up, but at least it won't be creating a problem for the environment. If you have your oil changed at a station, make sure they recycle it. If not, find one that does.

If the laundry detergent you are using contains phosphates you should discontinue using it and find one that has zero phosphorus content. The phosphates are put in there because they soften water and prevent dirt from settling back on to clothes in the wash cycle. But phosphates have some severe side effects. When they empty into bodies of water they actually fertilize algae. The algae grows out of control (called algae blooms), then eventually dies. The bacteria responsible use a lot of oxygen. So much oxygen that the other plants and marine life do not have enough to survive.

Certain wastes can be put down the drain with plenty of water. Check the label first. These usually include bathroom cleaners, medicines, alcohol and ammonia based products, cosmetics, and lye based products. Never put the following down the drain: Pesticides, polishes of any kind, paint, paint thinners and strippers, and any kind of solvents (gun cleaning, dry cleaning, polishes with solvents), transmission fluids, brake fluids, auto repair products, floor care products, and oven cleaners.

In addition to helping to keep the water clean, try to conserve on water too. Water conservation reduces the chemicals and energy used in water and sewage treatment, and the amount of energy needed to pump water into the home and then heat it. Here are some water facts:

*If a family of four takes five minute showers everyday, that's more than 700 gallons a week. 700 gallons of water is a three year supply of drinking water for one person. Install low-flow shower heads. They cut the flow, not the pressure of the water.

*If you let the water run while shaving, brushing teeth, or doing dishes, you are wasting three to five gallons every minute.

*Washing your car at home with a hose can use up to 150 gallons of water. Using a self-service car wash uses five to ten, and a bucket and sponge uses fifteen.

*Seventy-five percent of the water used in our homes is in the bathroom.

*We overwater our lawns. An already established lawn only needs one inch of water per week. Water at night or early in the morning. Evaporation of water occurs in the heat of the day. Use a trigger nozzle on your hose.

*Graywater (water from tubs and sinks), can be collected and used to water lawns and gardens. A special tank can be installed under the house where the water is collected, then it is slowly siphoned off the areas that need watering. Graywater cannot contain any grease or human excrement. Installing such a tank can be expensive and is usually done in areas where there is hardly any rainfall, but you can still reuse some of your water in the home by using dishpans in the sinks.

*A leaky faucet can waste over fifty gallons of water a day.

*Try Xeriscaping. Use plants and grasses for landscaping that do not require much water.

*It takes 2,607 gallons of water to produce one steak. (That's from growing the cattle to the actual processing of the meat.)

*Newer landfills are being lined with clay or plastic to prevent contamination of ground and surface water. Rain and snow help replenish water above the ground, but groundwater sources are renewed more slowly. Let's help to keep this good, clean water just that — good and clean. If you love this earth, then help take care of it.

Vikings Thump Lincoln-Alcona 29-8 For 3rd Win

The Grayling High School varsity football team opened its 1990 league play with a decisive 29-8 victory over Lincoln-Alcona on September 14, and raising its season record to 3-0.

Grayling made most of its yardage on runs, as the cold temperature and rain combined to make passing conditions difficult.

Senior fullback Dana Mirate scored the initial Viking touchdown in the 1st period, and Matt Branch kicked the extra point.

Senior halfback Mick McKinney scored his 1st TD of the evening in the 1st period, but the extra point attempt was unsuccessful.

In the 2nd quarter, senior split-end Adam Mead caught a 14-yard pass from Branch for a 1st down. McKinney went on to score again, and sophomore halfback Gary Shroyer ran the two-point conversion. Alcona scored once in the 4th period and made the conversion, bringing the final tally to 29-8.

"Our entire offensive line did a great job Friday," said Assistant Coach Mike Branch. Individual standouts, he added, included senior right guard Max Prosser, and the eversteady trio of senior tackles Todd Thorsen and Mark Andrus and junior left guard Scott Hartman.

JVs Rout Lincoln-Alcona 6th-Ranked Roscommon Beats Grayling

Halfbacks Jason Brigham and Steve Branch combined forces to score five touchdowns, earning the Grayling High School junior varsity football squad its second victory of the 1990 season -- a 34-14 rout of Lincoln-Alcona.

Sophomore Brigham scored twice in the 1st quarter on hand-offs from quarterback Mike Kirmo. He also ran the two-point conversions successfully for an additional four points.

Sophomore Branch scored on another Kirmo hand-off in the 2nd quarter.

Alcona scored only once in the first two periods, to bring the half-time score to 22-6.

Brigham scored a third time on a pass from Kirmo in the 3rd quarter. He scored his fourth and final TD on a handoff from freshman quarterback Chris Wolcott, who subbed for Kirmo in part of the third and all of the fourth quarters.

The visitors made their 2nd and final TD in the 2nd half. "It was real nice to win our first league game," said Branch. "And we have our own Barry Sanders," he added, in tribute to his teammate, Brigham.

The Viking offensive line, composed of center Chad Gorman, guards Greg Dorman and Jim Green, tackles Tom Schweizer and Matt Craig, and split-ends Mitch McMillan and Rick Leyland -- all sophomores -- "did a really good job," said Coach Chuck Spencer.

He continued, "The offensive line blocking enabled us to score quite frequently, make a lot of yardage and put a lot of points on the board."

"I felt protected when I dropped back because our line was blocking really great," added Kirmo.

In addition to Brigham's and Branch's considerable yardage, freshman fullback Chad Ventline "carried the ball frequently and Mike Kirmo did an excellent job at quarterback running offense," Spencer concluded.

"It was nice winning the first game we played in the new league," said Coach Fred Wolcott. "I hope it continues."

The JV team plays Rogers City at home on Thursday, September 20. Kick-off time is 6:30 p.m.

Of the 12 Grayling High School girls varsity basketball team players, nine were in the scoring column in their game against Roscommon on September 11.

But that wasn't enough to stop the Bucks, ranked 6th in the state, from running over the Vikes by a score of 47-27, in their second match-up of the 1990 season.

Senior Lisa Jo Barber was high scorer, with five points. Freshman Angie Mertes and junior Brenda Moshier each had four; junior Claudine Allen and sophomore Elissa Cox had three; and seniors Heather Stephenson, Nicki Morrill and Shannon Hinds had two.

Stephenson was high rebounder, with five. Morrill, Moshier and Barber each had four.

"The game went well for the first half," said Coach Howard Lehti. Leading Roscommon by a surprisingly low score of 3-2 at the end of the 1st quarter, the Vikings were doing "exactly what we wanted. We slowed the ball down and played a delay-type offense with the purpose of controlling the game."

As a team ranked 6th in Michigan, the Bucks were "expected to score lots of points," continued Lehti. "The GHS goal was to frustrate them and keep the ball in our hands."

By the end of the 2nd period, the score was still a low Roscommon 16, Grayling 13. "We went into the locker room feeling really good," said Coach Lehti.

Roscommon, though, had other ideas. They "came out in the 3rd quarter with a full-court press in an attempt to get us out of the delay, which helped turn the tempo of the game. The momentum switched to Roscommon after four quick baskets." And by the end of the 3rd period, the gap had widened slightly to 28-23.

The 4th quarter, then, told the tale. "After two and one-half minutes, the game was out of reach," said Lehti, "with the opposing center dominating. We had trouble with her all night and controlled every player but her. In fact, she scored 29 points for R.H.S."

Nevertheless, Coach Lehti defended his strategy, saying that the coaching staff thought the slow tempo would give GHS a chance to win. "If we had tried to play race horse basketball against Roscommon, they would have beat us by 50."

With 5:20 minutes remaining in the 4th quarter, the bench was cleared to give everyone valuable playing time.

Lehti says that he still hasn't found the five players who are capable of working as a unit. "But," he added, "that's not too unusual at this point in the year."

The Vikings continued to experience problems in the second away game of the week, against Boyne City on September 13.

Although Grayling led for the 1st three quarters, the Ramblers pulled ahead in the 4th, for a final score of 52-40.

High scorer for GHS was Morrill, with 17 points. Allen followed with 7; Barber, Stephenson and Moshier each had four; and Hinds and Mertes added two apiece.

Morrill also led in the rebounding column, with 12. Stephenson had four and Barber, two.

The end of the 1st quarter saw Grayling leading by a score of 12-10. At half-time, it was tied at 26. GHS had regained its small lead by the end of the 3rd period, to bring the score to 37-35.

But in the 4th quarter, BCHS outscored Grayling by a 17-3 margin. "Boyne brought a person off the bench who hit three straight buckets," said Lehti, "and we didn't handle it well."

With five minutes to go, the game was still within reach for the Grayling team," he continued. "But costly turnovers and good shooting by Boyne City determined the outcome."

Consistency, Lehti says, is still a big problem for the Vikings. He cited Morrill as his most consistent player and also expressed pleasure with forward Moshier's improvement as an offensive threat.

"But," he concluded, "the Grayling unit must learn to play four consistent quarters."

The varsity team takes on Lincoln-Alcona on Thursday, September 20, at home. The opponent's league record presently stands at 2-0, while Grayling is at 1-0 in conference play.

On Saturday, September 22, the Vikings host Marcellus, a Class C high school near Kalamazoo. "The school is about the same size as Grayling. It should be good competition," said Lehti.

9th Graders Lose Opener

Jessica McClain and Jennifer Fassinger combined forces to score 15 points for the Grayling High School girls freshman basketball squad on September 13. But that wasn't enough to stop a tough Standish-Sterling ball club, who defeated the GHS team in their season opener by a score of 43-25. It was a case of "first game jitters," said Coach Mark Hartman about the non-league contest. The team was "pretty nervous."

Nevertheless, he continued, "they played well; they executed certain plays well. But the ball just wasn't going in the basket."

Yet the freshman squad "hustled the whole game and never gave up."

The team, which played Mio on September 17, is now preparing to meet Cheboygan on Monday, September 24, at home at 7 p.m.

Cheboygan "has been quite tough in the past," said Hartman. To prepare, he intends to work with his team on getting the ball inside and shooting more.

"We had fun, anyway," Hartman concluded.

OFFENSIVE BOARDS--Heather Stephenson rebounds and then scores a basket.

JV Girls Win Twice

The Grayling High School girls junior varsity basketball team made it two in a row on the road last week, defeating both Roscommon and Boyne City.

"The team went out and attacked them in Roscommon," said Coach Dallas Hudson. "Grayling played a super ball game and exceptional defense."

Nine members of the JV team scored for the Vikings. Amy Vandecar led with 10 points; Darcy McCurdy, Mande Mleck and Sarah Mleck all had six; Jamie Andrus and Heidi Craigie, four; Valorie Schans, three; and Heather Millikin and Susan Huss, two each.

The final score was Grayling 43, Roscommon, 29.

Coach Hudson was lavish in his praise of the team. They "rebounded well," he said, "and played defense well. They wanted the ball game and they went out and proved it."

The Boyne City contest likewise went well, with the Vikings winning by a score of 41-32.

Although Mande Mleck—who was sidelined by an injury sustained in the Roscommon game—"was missed," her teammates admirably filled the void.

Eight JV Vikes scored against the Ramblers. Vandecar was leading scorer again, with nine points. Sarah Mleck and McCurdy followed closely with eight each. Andrus had five; Schans, four; Craigie, three; Gina Luppao and Jodi Denno, two apiece.

Andrus led in the rebounding column, with ten. Vandecar had eight; Sarah Mleck and McCurdy, seven; and Schans, five.

"It was a hard fought battle the 1st half," said Hudson, with the score going back and forth. Then Jodi Denno sank a bucket at the buzzer, putting Grayling ahead by one and lifting the spirits of the team going into the 2nd half; and Grayling dominated for the rest of the game.

"The team played excellent defense in the second half," continued Hudson, "and did a really good job rebounding."

He had special praise for several members of the squad, including Darcy McCurdy, "who turned in probably one of her best performances this year, both defensively and offensively."

He added that Amy Vandecar, Val Schans and Sarah Mleck all had excellent offensive and defensive games.

"I'm really pleased with this team," concluded Hudson. "We're going into the game against Alcona with the expectation of continuing our winning record."

8th Grade Loses Opener

Guard Nicole Parker was responsible for nine of the Vikings' points in the Grayling 8th grade girls basketball team's 1990 season opener.

Although the GMS Vikes lost the home court contest to Johannesburg-Lewiston, 32-17, "there were a couple of bright spots" in the game, said Coach Jim Parker.

In addition to Parker's aggressive offense, center Laura Hawkins hustled quite well under the basket and forward Kim Haske scored six points. JoBurg was a "real good, experienced team," continued Parker. "We lost because of lack of confidence and ability to get the ball down the court."

Nevertheless, Parker says he's looking forward to a good season. "We just need a little more practice and confidence."

The 8th grade Vikings play St. Mary's at Gaylord on Wednesday, September 19. The next game is against Roscommon in Grayling on Monday, September 24, immediately following the 7th grade game.

Wilkins Scores 20 In Loss

Guard Jenny Wilkins scored 20 of the Vikings' points in the Grayling 7th grade girls basketball team's first contest of the 1990 season. "She was aggressive enough to drive to the basket and shoot," explained Coach Harold Mertes.

While the Vikings lost to Johannesburg-Lewiston, 30-27, on September 10, it took three overtimes for the visitors to secure their victory; and "the girls played an excellent game," said Mertes.

Also scoring for the GMS Vikings were Mandy McEvers with four points; Brooke Blaauw with two; and Amy Neal with one.

Mertes continued, "In reality we outplayed them. GMS put more shots in the air and had more rebounds. But JoBurg made a higher percentage of their shots."

While Mertes was very pleased with his 7th grade team's defensive and rebounding skills, he now plans to concentrate on their shooting skills.

"I'm very excited about the team this year," Mertes concluded. They're coachable and willing to work hard, which makes it a pleasure for me. It looks like it's going to be an exciting year."

The 7th grade team goes on the road to play Gaylord St. Mary's on Wednesday, September 19. Their next game will be against Roscommon in the GMS gymnasium on Monday, September 24. Game time is 6 p.m.

Krey, Olson Win GCC Stroke Play Championship

Tim Krey wins Grayling Country Club Championship. Kathy Olson captures Ladies Division.

On Sunday, Sept. 16, Tim Krey won the 18-hole Grayling Country Club Stroke Play Championship shooting 81 to defeat runner-up Armand Lawrence by two strokes. Don Simons finished in third with 84. Other top finishers were Rudy Martinez (winner the past four years), Paul Olson, Art Taylor, Chris Trim, Bob Pollman, Lee Schonhoff, Josh Wyss, Roy Vogelsberg, and Tony Dore-mire.

Kathy Olson won the Ladies Division defeating Jeanne Thompson by one stroke. Jeannette Kitchen and Pearl Tucker tied for third place two strokes back. Rounding out the women's field were Mabel Gothro, Barb Harmer, and Gloria Nielson. All the women finished within eight strokes of Olson.

A brisk wind and cool temperatures made playing conditions difficult, but the players donned their rain gear and pressed on.

Classes Write Letters To Servicemen

Fourth grade students in Carl Hatfield's class and fifth grade students in Dawn Feldhauser's class are writing letters to local U.S. servicemen overseas in the Middle East.

Hatfield had one of the local servicemen, Ross Argue, in his classroom, and he remembers serviceman Scott VanDeVen as a student. Serviceman James Bobenmoyer also is an uncle to one of the students in Hatfield's class.

Many U.S. soldiers said mail from home is the highlight of their day in the Middle East. The students are using the address list of 13 local servicemen published in the Avalanche last week. In this week's issue, three more addresses were added.

KELLY KIEFER

My name is Kelly Kiefer. I have long, straight, brown hair. I have brown eyes. I am about four feet nine inches tall. I am ten years old. I weigh about seventy-eight pounds. I wear a six and a half size shoe. I was born in Flint Michigan. My Family and I moved to Grayling seven years ago. I was born March twenty-seventh of the year 1980. I live in a big blue house. It has nine rooms; four bedrooms, two bathrooms, a kitchen, dining room, and living room. I have a mom and dad and one brother. My mom works in sewing shop and my dad works as an engineer. I want to be a teacher when I grow up. My friend, Jennifer, and I are planning to work together. I want to be a teacher because I think it would be fun to teach people things that I know. My best friend's name is Jennifer Lech. She has short brown hair. I've known her since kindergarten. My favorite toy is my doll, Samantha. She has long, straight, brown hair like mine. She is 18" high and she's so pretty. She cost $74.00. It took me a long time to save that much money! I don't go outside much, but I try to sometimes. My favorite dinner is Pizza. I like Pizza because it's very good. I like pizza because of the spicy pepperoni and mozzarella cheese. I don't have a pet. I have had pets before though. I have had fish and birds. I don't remember what kind of fish we had or what they looked like. I do remember what my birds looked like. They were both brown and brothers bird had peanut butter colored wings. My brother and I both had a bird. One of the birds was a girl and one was a boy. I like the Middle School a lot. I like my teacher too. She is strict. My favorite part about the Middle School is the Block Classes. The Middle School is very different than the private school. I don't like the bus ride home its hot and long.

NIKKI STROHPAUL

My name is Nikki Ann Strohpaul. My middle name is after my Grandma. I have brown hair and greenish-blue eyes. I also hate waiting for perms! When I'm sitting in the chair waiting for Corrine to put all the rods in my hair, we talk. When Corrine takes the rods out she counts them. There are about 196 rods.

I was born on July 11, 1980, in the Grayling Mercy Hospital. Everybody calls me a seven-eleven baby! I was born with a port-wine stain birthmark on the left side of my face. I go to the Shriner's Hospital every other year. They want to wait until I'm sixteen years old before they do any treatments.

I've always been tall for my age, so no one should be surprised that I like to play basketball! Mr. Lethi tells my mom and dad to keep feeding me. I play Jr. Pro Basketball in the winter, and this will be my third year.

I don't like my eight year old brother, Rusty. He is a real big brat. He like to hit me, kick me, messes up my things, and teases me.

My mom is real nice to me when I have problems. I can always talk to her about things like school and friends. My mom can also be a bear sometimes!

The end of this summer was very sad for me because two of my friends moved. Christa moved to Millington, Mi. and Julie moved to Anis, Indiana.

I like the Grayling Middle School because it's so different from the Elementary School. My favorite subject is band because Mr. Ormsbee is understanding.

I like to play school at home with my friend Nikki. I think I would like to be a teacher when I grow up.

Welcome To The School Page

In our county of splendid natural resources, none surpass our most precious resource -- our children. This weekly page will highlight the creative achievements of our students in local schools. The Avalanche will be visiting our schools regularly for photographs and stories about students. We're also encouraging teachers to submit artwork, stories, poems, puzzles, and other original work by students. Watch for these as the school year progresses.

Brain Teaser

As I was canoeing a remote stretch of the AuSable, I saw something in the bushes near the water. It had four fingers and one thumb but it wasn't a fish or fowl and it had neither flesh nor bone. Do you know what it was?

(Answer to last week's puzzle: Move both end pins in the row of 4 to the row of 2. Move the #1 pin to opposite end to make a new ten-pin formation.)

Recess Is Too Short

My name is Andy Wadsworth. I'm in Mr. Hatfield's fourth grade. I like playing Simon says with Mr. Hatfield and the class. We are studying entomology in science. We have social studies, English, spelling, reading, arithmetic, handwriting, gym, music, and library. I have advanced studies with Mrs. Stancil and resource room with Mrs. Stevens.

Recess is too short. I like playing soccer with my friends.

We had music last Friday. The teacher has to travel around the school with her keyboard. There is a class in the music room so she can't use it for music.

We are going to have library today.

Lots Of Nice People

There's a lot nice people in this class. It's pretty well put together. We have a good teacher. we have a lot of things to do, like play games, do work, read, and do jobs. We played Bingo with math cards, we played 7-Up, and checkers. We do math, science, geography, English, and reading. Most of us are level 10 in reading. We clean the sink, clean the erasers, empty the wastebasket, clean off cupboards, and work in the lunchroom.

I like math the best. We are doing subtraction and addition. We will be doing multiplication and division.

Your Grayling Regional Chamber Of Commerce

Standing behind your business community. . .

The Chamber of Commerce is a volunteer organization which unites business, industry, service and professional people in efforts to strengthen the local economy and build a better community in which to live and work. Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce is responsible for the economic well being of Crawford County. A healthy economy boosts every aspect of a community - civic, cultural, and educational. Likewise, a progressive community creates a more attractive, profitable business environment.

The Chamber meets its responsibilities three ways:

- it examines local needs to determine what action should be taken.
- it channels community resources to fulfill these needs.
- it organizes and develops the leadership to guarantee that the Chamber will be an effective force in achieving its goals - and your goals.

The chamber enables you to accomplish collectively what you could not accomplish alone.

Serving businesses throughout Crawford County. . .

The principle reason of the success of the Chamber of Commerce is the generations of good business and professional leaders who have invested their time and money in the Chambers promise of progress of Crawford County.

Currently, more than 240 firms are participating in the Chamber program. The widely diversified membership spans the county and serves a clientele that spans the globe. The members include virtually every size and style of business and profession, sharing only a common belief in the future of our county and it's Chamber of Commerce.

Consensus member views are served through an elected board of directors which is a cross section of the entire membership. A professional staff administers board policy and also provides direct member service in many areas.

You participate through annual dues. You participate personally - as you wish - through a comprehensive committee system.

Travel Series Opens With Alaskan Trip

The 18th season of the Travel and Adventure series opens on Thursday evening, September 27th, when the Crawford AuSable Community Education office presents its first program of the Travel and Adventure Film Series for 1990-1991 at 7:30 p.m. in the Joseph Stripe Auditorium, at Grayling High School.

The last great wilderness, Alaska, is an outdoorsman's and tourist paradise. Ken Creed's travelogue film will take you to some of the most fascinating places; such as a flight trip with a bush pilot across the Great Alaska Range; a trip down the Chena and Tanana Rivers on the only Sternwheeler Riverboat in Alaska; the Discovery II - through the Denali National Park where you'll view the spectacular variety of wildlife and scenery.

To the North American Sled-dog Racing Championships held in Anchorage each year. Visit one of the largest gold mines in Alaska, Independence Mine, or try your luck gold mining at Crow Creek Mine, located on the Kenai Peninsula. Visit Portage Glacier (the most often visited place in Alaska). Visit Bill Hoskins and his vegetable garden where he grows 75 lb. cabbages each year.

See the only Salmon Rescue ever held in Alaska where more than 40,000 salmon were stranded at Russian Riverfalls. Take a raft trip down the raging white waters of the Nenana River. Visit the largest Seaplane base on earth (Lake Hood near Anchorage). Visit Seward and take a charter boat out into Day Harbor. Visit 82 year old Tom Trull and his cabin where he's been living more than 50 years. Visit Skagway (gateway to the Gold fields in the 1890's). Visit the Hanson family and observe how the typical family lives in the bush. Visit the rich and fertile Mantanuska Valley where the large vegetables are grown. Visit John Ireland, ex-movie star, who gave up the good life for a simple life here in the great wilderness of Alaska.

A welcome back treat will be offered following the presentation. Season passports are still available as well as individual tickets priced at $3.50. The honored guests for the evening will be the Grayling Rotary Club.

St. John Church Finishes Renovation

Sunday, Sept. 9th, special services were held for the dedication of the renovated Fellowship Hall at St. John Lutheran church. The renovation project is in preparation for the Latch Key Program which the church is sponsoring this fall and winter for the benefit of school children.

The project consisted of new walls and ceilings, lighting fixtures, handicap rest room, painting, and ceiling fans. Most of the work was done by the men and women of the church who have worked diligently and long hours to accomplish the task.

Following church services the members enjoyed a chicken barbecue in the church yards, at long tables which had been arranged under a tent canopy. Delicious food and conversation was enjoyed by approximately 100 people.

Auditions Scheduled For Dinner Theatre

Open auditions for the next Dinner Theatre production at the Grayling Holiday Inn have been set for Tuesday, September 25. Auditions will begin at 7 p.m. in the Holiday Inn conference rooms. Anyone interested in participating in the next dinner theatre, either in an on-stage role or in a support position behind the scenes should plan to attend the auditions.

Production dates have been set at November 15, 16, and 17. The show to be presented is a farce entitled "Let's Murder Marsha." It's a laugh a minute comedy about a happy housewife who reads too many murder mysteries. She overhears her husband and an interior decorator planning her birthday party and she thinks they are planning to murder her, so, she decides to turn the tables on them, and with the help of the next door neighbor, murder them instead.

"Let's Murder Marsha" is a fast paced show that will be enjoyed by actors and audience alike. The cast calls for three men and four women. In addition, people will be needed for lights and sound, scenery, costumes, and props.

Alumni News

By Clara Sorenson
Membership Secretary

We apologize for the picture last week. The Brady Bunch is a very handsome family, but the rough draft of the composite that was furnished by the photographer did not do justice. The finished product will be a good one for our school room at the museum.

We want to share part of a letter we received last week. Quote: "I see that Melanie Ojala was given the honor of being the Best All Around Good Citizen of the Senior Class of '90. From the name I assume she is Finnish. Being an American Finn myself and having taught school for 37 years, I am proud of her. We need many like her." Signed, Agnes Walden Andersen, '22.

This program was started in 1961 as recognition of the support Roy O. Milnes, class of 1916, had given us before he died. He was this kind of citizen, all around good worker for his community, his family, and his school. It has always been our favored award. We gave this long before we had any money to offer. It has been our pat on the back to a student chosen by teachers, approved by us. We think Agnes said it all. Look for our plaque at the High School some day while you are browsing the halls. We are starting on plaque #2.

After the death of Peg Milnes, her sister, Sal Hubel came to us for help to establish a memorial for her. In 1986 we suggested a matching plaque, same as the one we had set up for her husband, Roy. We now give an award to the "Best All Around Good Citizen of the 8th Grade" at the Middle School. (It is near the Spruce Street entrance). Mrs. Milnes was a teacher in this school building for many years.

Keep in mind that any GHS Alumni is welcome to come to Holiday Inn on Saturday, September 29. We have a good evening planned. For reservations call Clara Sorenson, 348-8260 after 6 p.m., or mail a request to GHS Alumni Office, 403 Michigan Ave., Grayling, MI, 49738.

Grayling State Bank Introduces New Logo

Grayling State Bank has introduced a new logo which will appear on the bank's signs, bank forms, and advertisements. The new logo features a distinctive red ball and the letters "GSB" which stand for the bank's full name. The logo also now includes the name of the bank's parent organization, Citizens Banking Corporation, with which Grayling State Bank has been affiliated since 1984.

According to GSB's Chairman Richard T. Albee, "GSB is more memorable and more convenient to say and write. In fact, some people have used this acronym for many years. By using these initials along with the ball our logo will look more contemporary and fresh."

Albee says the name of Citizens Banking Corporation was added because a new banking law will soon allow customers of Citizens' mid-state affiliates to use GSB when they visit the Grayling area. And, GSB customers will be able to use Citizens' affiliates when they travel in Standish, Midland, Saginaw, Bay City and Flint. With similar signs featuring the red ball, customers of all the affiliates will easily recognize where they can bank.

Albee added that the new look is for logo and sign purposes only; the legal name remains "Grayling State Bank."

Surgeons Conduct National Certification Board Examinations

Two local orthopedic surgeons, Dr. John M. Thiel and Dr. Louis S. Habryl, participated as examiners in part three of the National Certification Board examinations for the American Osteopathic Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons. Criteria for choosing examiners include overall clinical and surgical experience, years in practice and individual board certification. Dr. Thiel was Board Certified in April of 1985 and Dr. Habryl was certified in March of 1987.

To be eligible for part three of the National Boards an orthopedic surgeon has to pass a written examination followed by an oral exam, usually within the first two years of practice. Part three entails intensified chart review of the surgeon's activities for his first three years of practice and also observation of two major operative orthopedic procedures.

Drs. Thiel and Habryl conducted examinations in New Jersey and Ohio respectively. They will both continue to conduct yearly exams for the American Osteopathic Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons.

Dr. Thiel and Habryl practice in a four physician group; N'Orthopedics, P.C., that also includes Dr. Robert L. Halter and Dr. Michael J. Forness. N'Orthopedics has offices in both Gaylord and Grayling.

Classical Music Appreciation Course Offered in Grayling

A study of the world's greatest masters from Johann Sebastian Bach (1635-1750) to the composers, conductors, orchestras and artists of this century will be presented by Gordon Farley, an appreciator, whose select collection of compact discs, tapes and records encompasses this entire period.

Almost all of the music listened to and discussed will be on compact discs. You will hear Beethoven's nine symphonies led by Arturo Toscanini (by far the greatest conductor of all time). You will compare the tenor voices of Caruso, Gigli, Bjorling, Domingo and Pavarotti. Only highlights of operas will be offered, but the great sopranos can compete for your pleasure.

of Caruso, Melba, Geraldine Farrar, Alma Gluck, John McCormack, Galli-Curci, etc. This was the start of a love and learning experience that continues to this day, 67 years later. His main purpose in offering this program is a desire to share those years of pleasure with others.

You will not listen to all seventeen hours of Wagner's "The Ring of the Nibelung" during this course - but at its conclusion - you might just want to.

Contact the Adult and Community Education office at the Grayling High School, 348-7641 ext. 27, for enrollment information and further details.

ment information and further details.

A special collection of RCA cassettes covering the first 100 years of the Metropolitan Opera and 100 singers who significantly performed there during that period (1883-1983) will also be available. (The first recording was made in 1903.)

When Gordon Farley was two and a half year old in 1922 his parents moved him from his birthplace in Los Angeles to San Francisco and bought a "Victrola Talking Machine."

Wendell Hoover

Park Interpreter, Hartwick Pines State Park

It is interesting, to me at least, how information to answer sometimes trivial questions comes to light. The Friends group recently acquired a book for our reference library and for sale in the bookstore, that answers several questions about old time logging. The book is titled "Endless Tracks in the Woods" by J. Young and J. Budy. This book is published in Florida which needless to say is a fair piece in time and distance from the Tall Timber.

According to the authors, a trained team of horses ready to go to work in the woods would cost from $500 to $700 and they depreciated 10 to 25 percent annually. This corresponds to old time teamsters telling me that a horse lasted only three to five years in the woods. The harness for a team cost close to $100 and it cost eight cents a day to keep the horses shod.

Horses shed both roughage in the form of hay and concentrates in the form of grain. Considering that a horse's digestive system is quite fragile, it cost up to two dollars a day to properly feed one animal.

Coupled to the cost of maintaining the horses, a teamster cared for them before and after the ten hour work day. The vulnerable parts of logging horses were their feet and legs, which had to be continually doctored for bruises and cuts.

When Big Wheels were being used, a teamster was assisted by a swamper, whose job it was to clear paths through any underbrush. This would cost the company some ten cents per thousand board feet of logs being transported.

Verse or Worse

Campfire Musings

As I sit and dream in the campfire's gleam
Of those many campfires of the past
I know somehow the one before me now
Could very well be my last

From the one we had when as a little lad
I spent my first night in the wood
Where it seemed to me every bush and tree
Were monsters who thought little boys tasted good

But with the breaking morn I felt reborn
A young woodsman with no fear of the dark
Who felt more at home in the woods alone
Who would never camp in a state park

By many a lake or stream my campfire's gleam
Has been the light of my home
And in that light I've taken delight
Where ever I might roam

The campfire's glow on fields of snow
Provided light and heat
And cooked the stew and biscuits too
And warmed my chilly feet

On many a summer night, by the campfire's light
I've cleaned a fine mess of trout
Fish cooked fresh from the creek are at their peak
Of that there is no doubt

My campfire dies before my eyes
The darkness leaves me blind
But well I know I'll often sit in its glow
If only in my mind

Resource Review

Bruce Patrick Conservation Officer

I recently had an opportunity to attend a meeting of Hunter Safety Coordinators from throughout the Midwest. Several topics were discussed, but the one subject which received the most attention was Hunter Responsibility.

In most Hunter Safety courses, Hunter Responsibility is relegated to be secondary position due to the amount of material to be covered and a limited amount of time. This is as true in Michigan as elsewhere. But perhaps we should upgrade its importance in educating young hunters. Unless we do, many feel that sport hunting in this country has a limited future.

Nation wide, about 20% of the population consider themselves to be hunters. There are another 17% of the population who are ardent anti-hunters. The other 2/3 of the American people are non-hunters who are, for the most part, ambivalent if not apathetic about hunting as a recreational pursuit.

There is a very vocal, well heeled campaign against sport hunting being waged by the 17% of anti-hunters. To end sport hunting as we know it, this group of people will be to bring the matter up for a vote, either in the legislature or as a referendum voted on directly by the people. All that would be needed is a 51% of the vote and your privilege to hunt would be history.

To reach that majority only half of the non-hunting public would need to vote for such a measure (actually, much fewer than that because generally less than 50% of qualified voters exercise their right on election day).

What does all this have to do with Hunter Responsibility? Well, non-hunters will have to be convinced which way to vote on such an issue and their frame of mind will be based on how they perceive hunters.

If a non-hunter's only experience with a hunter is negative then that person will become an anti. For example, a non-hunting land owner faced with trespass problems will favor a law ending hunting to solve his own problems. If a non-hunting family stops in a northern Michigan community during deer season; they may be repulsed by the specter of a group of hunters, still covered with blood, loudly discussing their exploits in a restaurant.

Every hunter carries the burden of protecting his sport. Those that don't, the poachers, the trespassers, the drunks and the slobs are going to ruin it for everyone else.

The anti-hunters have set a goal of no more sport hunting in the U.S. by the year 2000. Think about what you do.

Your actions may be legal, but are they right? Be a responsible hunter and demand the same from others.

The Grayling Vikings lost a heartbreaker last Friday evening when the Harrison Hornets upset them 7 to 6.

The Grayling Chamber of Commerce held its Annual Meeting and election of officers. Named President for 1967-68 year was Gerald Burns, comptroller of Bear Archery Company. The First Vice President was Donald Welser of the Welser Motor Lodge; Second Vice President, Clyde Borchers of Cornell Real Estate and Insurance Company.

Golf Auxiliary is proud this week to honor Laura Olson as "Our Golfer of the Year". We gladly boast that we probably have the oldest golfer in the United States as a member of our auxiliary. Laura will soon be 79 and still leads all of us a merry chase on that ole golf course.

Jimmy Hatfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hatfield, caught this 21-inch rainbow trout Labor Day in the kids' section of the East Branch of the AuSable, using half a night crawler.

Twenty-one students graduated Sunday afternoon from Mercy School of Practical Nursing in St. Ann's Church at Cadillac. Attending from Grayling were Sister M. Janice, Administrator of Mercy Hospital, Sister M. Neil and Rosemary Kemp and R.N. Branigan will be returning to Grayling Mercy Hospital to work. Harvey McGill of Maple Forest landed a 21 pound coho salmon at Frankfort on Thursday. In two previous fishing trips he also caught a 15 1/2 pounder and one 11 1/4 pounds. In the three times he went fishing he and his parties caught 8 salmon in all.

Just who is this man who is to take over ownership of the Avalanche? That's a reasonable question, for naturally when someone is to take so prominent a part in our community affairs as to become editor of its newspaper, people want to know about him. On October 2nd, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Strong will become the editors, publishers, and owners of the Crawford Avalanche. We, who have held this responsible position for the past 33 years, will be entirely out. Strong, we understand, is disposing of his interest in the Greenville Daily News, and is giving up his position of managing editor.

That had been his position for the past three years. For eight years he had been circulation manager of the Flint News-Advertiser, and for three years he was employed in the circulation department of the Flint Journal. He graduated from Flint Central High School in 1932. Mrs. Strong, former Evabel Carter Elston, graduated from Flint Central High School in 1933. They have two children, Sondra Eve, 8 years old, and Robert W. 2nd, five years old. ### New Age Reprint

We continue the educational aspect of the New Age series with portions from part #10 of a series we ran over three years ago on the New Age movement. Perhaps that article was a little early and ahead of its time, so we repeat a large portion of it:

"Hal Lindsey has stated that government 'schools' have become the number-one target of the New Age 'evangelistic' efforts toward a one-world religion and government." Lindsey quotes John Humphrey in the Humanist magazine: "I am convinced that the battle for humankind's future must be waged and won in the public school classroom by teachers... The classroom must and will become an area of conflict between the old and the new -- the rotting corpse of Christianity, together with all its adjacent evils and misery, and the new faith of humanism...."

"Educators Jack Canfield and Paula Klimek wrote in New Age magazine: 'In a growing number of classrooms throughout the world, education is beginning to move into a new dimension. More and more teachers are exposing children to ways of contracting their inner wisdom and their higher selves... New Age education has arrived... an influx of spiritual teachings from the East, combined with a new psychological perspective in the West, has resulted in a fresh look at the learning process... and the purpose of life... Within the last five years we have also witnessed the birth of "transpersonal education" -- the acknowledgement of one's inner and spiritual dimensions through working with such forms and dreams, meditating, guided imagery, biofeedback, centering, mandalas, and so forth."

"Following the arrest of a mother for attempting to remove her daughter from a class which had objectionable reading material, Fundamentalists Christians won a court victory. Liberal news media branded the case 'Tennessee Scopes II trial' and branded the parents crazy fanatics. The Hawkins County School Board received support and guidance from 'People for the American Way.' At issue was the occult and antichristian material in the Holt Basic Reader series for grades two through eight...."

We are not opposing our local schools and teachers, but the many dangers of the Michigan Model being superimposed upon all of us. There are violations of local control, child/parent privacy, parental rights, religious morality, and other bureaucratic blunders which local educators, parents, and community leaders should impose. If now now, when? If not you, who?

"The Bible Speaks" is a paid advertisement and does not reflect the views or policies of the Crawford County Avalanche. The factual allegations contained in the column are not verified by the newspaper and the opinions expressed are the sole responsibility of Pastor Barnett and the Grayling Calvary Baptist Church.

TO FIND REFUGE...

Lightning flashes across the sky. Thunder unleashes its ominous rumblings. The first spatter of rain falls briskly on a nearby row of rocks.

The wind begins an eerie song high above in the swaying tops of tall pines. Sullen banks of clouds blanket the pale moon.

The creatures of the woods scurry to their dens to wait out the approaching storm. Every living thing in the forest seems to be holding its breath in anticipation... or in fear.

And this is the way of the world, too. There will always be anxiety... always fear. Where, then, do we go for refuge? To what or to whom do we look for comfort and safety?

For centuries God's house has offered protection against the adversities of life. It has provided solace and peace in the presence of grief and fear.

Come to the House of the Lord... while the storm is raging... and forever thereafter.

October is National Restaurant Month!

The Crawford County Avalanche

WM publish a restaurant guide throughout the month of October featuring more than a dozen area restaurants.

You can make dining out a regular part of your week and you'll be sure to find that special eating place suited to your tastes by using the Restaurant Guide from your hometown newspaper.

The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce is beginning to compile information for the 1990-91 Chamber Membership Directory. The directory will be distributed to all Chamber Members, to individuals inquiring about Grayling Area Businesses and to those relocating to the Grayling Area.

All Chamber Members will receive complementary listings of their business both alphabetically and categorically according to their business specification. Chamber members may be contacted to update their business address or contact person for the listing. If your business has had a change of staff or has moved recently please contact the Chamber Office to assure that your business information will be printed accurately. Advertising will be sold in the directory solely on a voluntary basis. It's not required for a Chamber Member Business to purchase advertising to have their business listed, however the more advertisers, the better quality directory will be able to be produced.

The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce Directories will be printed in mid-November, to include all of the new Chamber Members from the upcoming Membership Drive, and will be distributed shortly thereafter. If you have updates or questions regarding the Chambers Membership Directory please contact the Chamber Office at 348-2921.

We're still Grayling State Bank, only a little less of a mouthful.

If you've been paying attention lately, you may have noticed some changes going on at Grayling State Bank. Our signs, stationery, everything that bears our name, now reads GSB. Nothing mysterious about it, just a little bit easier to say than Grayling State Bank.

You'll also have noticed that our logo now mentions that we are a Citizens Banking Corporation and includes the Citizens Banking Corporation red ball. That's so our customers will know that wherever they see a bank with that mark—in Flint or Saginaw or Bay City or Midland or Grand Haven and lots of other places in 1991 they'll be free to do their banking just as if they were in Grayling, Michigan. It's a little more important new benefit to our customers.

Aside from that, everything's pretty much the same at Grayling State Bank or GSB. Same great services, same attention to our customers, only a little less of a mouthful.
